Principal Officer appointed for ACR Hong Kong Office

Singapore, October 6, 2009 – Asia Capital Reinsurance Group is pleased to announce, with effect from 6 October 2009, the appointment of Emily Lin as the Principal Officer of ACR's Hong Kong Branch Office. Emily succeeds Frederick Ha, who has retired from ACR.

Emily brings with her close to 20 years of industry experience from both the direct insurance and reinsurance sectors. She has been with ACR since 2007 as the Chief Representative of our Taiwan Representative Office and was responsible for leading initiatives to promote ACR's reinsurance solutions and services among the Taiwanese insurance companies. Prior to ACR, Emily was with Swiss Re and Central Insurance Company as its client manager and division chief for fire reinsurance and claims respectively. She is also a Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter of the Insurance Institute of America.

Emily's experience in the reinsurance business and her outstanding client relationship management record will ensure that ACR's Hong Kong operations remain client-focused by providing comprehensive specialist reinsurance products and services. Under her leadership, ACR will continue to pursue excellence and innovation in providing expertise risk solutions to meet the needs of growing client base in the Hong Kong and North Asian markets.
